

Dreaming of Castles, (Christian Contemporary Romance)

When Spring Daltons best friend excludes her as a bridesmaid because of her less than perfect figure, she faces her life head-on. Thinking God may never answer her prayers, she accepts her cousins offer and travels to Heidelberg, Germany with dreams of a becoming an artist, becoming thinner, and being swept away by Prince Charming. On the train from Frankfurt to Heidelberg, Matt Sherman literally falls into her lap and the two strangers embark on a floundering adventure falling in love. From the first day, Matt is drawn to Spring, but guilt and anger from his past makes him feel unworthy to be loved. Will Spring learn patience as she realizes prayer is answered in Gods time? Will Matt learn to forgive and accept Gods forgiveness so he can follow his heart and ask Spring to be his wife?
