

First Class Farewell (First Class series Book 9)

Just when life seems to be perfect, tragedy strikes. The Lathems lose one of their own in a senseless, violent crime and the family struggles to deal with the loss. Spreading the ashes and saying farewell is harder than they could ever have imagined, but are reminded repeatedly that life goes on there is still living and loving to be done. While all together in their house in the Caribbean, they are reminded once more how fragile life can be and how they should treasure every moment shared with the most important people on earth their family. Join the Lathem family as they say goodbye to a loved one and watch a romance blossom right in front of their eyes.
