

Green Like the Water: A Russell Short Story

On St. Simons Island for a second honeymoon, Lisa Forester never expects to come face-to-face with her own mortality, but that's just what happens one sun-soaked afternoon on the beach. A near-tragedy brings simmering tensions to a boil, and propels her stalwart, patient, devoted husband Drew into action. A confirmation of their love becomes more of a rediscovery, in this Russell Series short story about being happy with what you have.
