

Mrs Collins, Against Her Wishes

A Pride and Prejudice what if story. With the departure of the Netherfield party to London, the Bennet familys hopes of a marriage between Jane and Mr Bingley are dashed. Due to declining health, and wishing to protect his family, Mr Bennet insists on Elizabeth marrying his cousin, Mr Collins. On the way from the wedding breakfast to Hunsford, a terrible carriage accident befalls the newlyweds. Mr Darcy receives a letter from his aunt, pleading for his assistance, as her clergyman is dead and his wife is terribly injured. What will Darcys reaction be to finding the young lady he cannot forget, in the cottage at Hunsford?
