

Getting Up When Life Knocks You Down: Five Steps to Overcoming a Life Crisis

The loss of a loved one, a bitter divorce, a serious injury or financial crisis?we must all, at some point, face those unavoidable moments that divide our lives into before and after. How do we muscle through tough times and emerge stronger, wiser?even grateful for our struggle? In 1984, author Jerry White lost his leg in a tragic accident. He has personally endured the pain of loss and the challenge of rebuilding. As cofounder of Survivor Corps, White has met thousands of victims of tragedy. With this book, he shares what he has learned.White outlines a specific five-step program for turning tragedy into triumph. In their own words, his survivor friends share their stories. Its a group that includes the well known, like Lance Armstrong, Nelson Mandela, and the late Princess Diana, and also everyday survivors. Through their stories and the authors words, this book takes readers step by step through the process of not only surviving tragedy and victimhood, but going on to thrive.
