Teach Us to Sit Still by Tim Parks
Riveting ... Parks discoveries will fascinate not only writers but all citizens of an information age steeped in and propelled by language. The New Yorker [Tim Parks] prose is mordantly funny, self-conscious but never self-pitying, worldly but introspective, attuned to the needs of a soul that he considers thoroughly material and mortal. The result is an absorbing, at times inspiring, narrative of spiritual growth. Publishers Weekly, starred review
