

The Pursuit of God: Original and Unabridged (Christian Classics)

The Pursuit of God is a masterly study of the inner life by a heart thirsting after God, eager to grasp at least the outskirts of His ways, the abyss of His love for sinners, and the height of His unapproachable majesty and it was written by a busy pastor in Chicago! This book is the result of long meditation and much prayer. It is not a collection of sermons. It does not deal with the pulpit and the pew but with the soul thirsting after God. The chapters could be summarized in Moses prayer, Show me thy glory, or Pauls exclamation, O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! It is theology not of the head but of the heart. Here is a book for every pastor, missionary, and devout Christian. It deals with the deep things of God and the riches of His grace. Above all, it has the keynote of sincerity and humility.
